in The Mackay Region

Seek out delicious culinary experiences in every corner of The Mackay Region, and indulge in some of the finest local flavours available.

Sarina Sugar Shed: Sarina

This award-winning experience is a feast for the senses. You can taste, touch, hear and see a miniature sugar mill and distillery in production. Learn how sugarcane is grown, harvested and eventually made into delicious liqueurs, rums, sauces and fairy floss - all of which you can sample!

The Old Station Teahouse: Cape Hillsborough

Rich with history and set within the lush rainforest of Cape Hillsborough, the Old Station Teahouse, a 115-year-old former railway station, serves Devonshire Tea, homemade cakes, high tea and light lunch. At night, the Teahouse is transformed into a gustation experience under the stars.

Lunch with Million Dollar Views: Eimeo and Eungella

We may be biased, but The Mackay Region is home to two of the most picturesque pubs in Australia. Whether its coastal vibes and views of the Coral Sea at Eimeo Pacific Hotel, or high up in the rainforest looking across the Pioneer Valley at the Eungella Chalet - there's no better places to enjoy a meal.

Historic Country Hotels: Nebo and Mackay City

Relax and unwind with a cold beer or great steak at several historic country pubs, located across the region. Two of the richest in history and character, are the 1886 built, heritage listed Nebo Hotel, and the Austral Hotel - destroyed in the Great Cyclone of 1918 and rebuilt in 1923.

The Flackyard: Pinnacle

This 1915 church-come-restaurant, is home to Belissimo Italian cuisine. Handmade with the finest locally sourced produce, Church Cafe Pinnacle is a little taste of Italy, nestled within the beautiful Pioneer Valley.

TurBARlence: Mackay Airport

TurBARlence serves contemporary Australian cuisine in an open-plan, upbeat dining room with attached Sports Bar and beautiful outdoor Terrace to unwind. Experience the delicious breakfast, lunch and dinner menu, full of locally sourced produce.

Moss on Wood: Mackay City

Moss on Wood is a modern twist on city dining, with a fresh hint of Urban chic. This atmosphere creates a perfect space to go with friends, family and work colleagues to enjoy a meal or beverage.

Greater Whitsunday Farmers' Market: Bluewater Quay

The Greater Whitsunday Farmers' Market showcases fresh, local produce direct from farmers across the region, including the award-winning Freckle Farm and Cloudbreak Lowlines. Held every Wednesday at Bluewater Quay, there is a variety of locally grown and homemade produce available for purchase.

Pinnacle Family Hotel: Pinnacle

Experience a world-famous Pinnacle Pie, along with stellar views of the sugarcane fields, at the Pinnacle Family Hotel. It's hard to go past their massive pies, topped with mashed peas, chips and gravy.
